Quarterly mortgagors shall pay from 8th to 15th of each January, April, July and October, and half yearly mortgagors shall pay between the 8th and 15th of each January and July.

With the amortization fund, mortgage certificates (cedulas) shall be redeemed at par by quarterly and half yearly drawings.

The mortgage Bank pays the interest on the quarterly cedulas or mortgage certificates between the 31st December and 6th January, the 31st March and 6th April, the 30th June and 6th July, the 30th September and 6th October every year, and on the half yearly cedulas from the 31st December to 6th January, and from 30th June to 6th July.

MARCH OF INTELLECT.

TELEGRAPHS AND FREE LIBRARIES.

Some people say the country is going ahead too fast, others that its progress is more apparent than real, others that all advancement is due to the foreign element, and so on. We have neither time nor inclination to examine these one-sided views, but content ourself with the fact that the Argentine Republic is making rapid strides, unequalled elsewhere except by the U States or the British colonies; in effect this country is doubling its trade, finances, railways, and population every ten years, and at this rate we only want peace for a single generation, to see La Plata take a foremost position among the young nations of the New World.

Perhaps nothing is more characteristic of the Sarmiento administration than the great development of telegraph wires and free libraries all over the Republic. We have before us the report of Mr. Burton on the telegraphs, and Mr Palemon Huergo on the free libraries, which contain much that is interesting for the general reader.

Two years ago we had no telegraph wires except along the few short stretches of railway then constructed, and used only for the wants of the railway, such as sending for locomotives &c. At present we have nearly 4,000 miles of telegraph either open to traffic or near completion, viz:—

	miles.
Government lines	2,000
Do. to be ready in 73	1,000
Transandine line	600
Railway lines	500
	4,100

Such is the growth of business that Mr. Burton says he cannot get through with it, even by keeping his clerks often working all night, and he urges upon the Government to double the member of wires on all the principal lines. The following returns of the Telegraphic Department will shew how immensely the people of the Provinces are begining to appreciate this great convenience—

	Telegrams.	Receipt.
September to Dec.	1870 6,440	1,511$
January to April	1871 13,890	5,276
May to August	1871 17,352	6,644
Sept. to Dec.	1871 25,438	15,170
January to April	1872 43,817	17,392

This shews that the business is doubling every six months, and the revenue from this source will soon form a large item. This time last lear the receipts were 55$ daily, now they are 150$, and by next year we anticipate they will exceed 300$ a day: only yesterday six new offices were opened in the Upper Provinces, in communication with B, Ayres.

This rapid increase is greatly due to the cheap uniform tariff of 25 cents (one shilling English) for ten words to any part of the Republic: herein we have profited of the experience of other countries. In France they charged at first 2½ dollars, but had to reduce it to 20 cents. In Belgium they began at 1 dollar and came down to 10 cents. In Switzerland from 20 cents. they reduced it to ten. In Sweden and Norway the charge is 30 cents. In England, with 80,000 miles of telegraphs, the public was badly served at high rates, till the Government bought the lines and put the uniform charge at 25 cents, or one shilling. The Argentine Republic is cheaper than all, for you can send a message more than a thousand miles for a shilling!

Considering that telegraph-wires are so much more useful in this country than any other, and that they only cost $500 a mile, it is a wonder we had not thousands of miles open to traffic ten years ago. But it is pleasant to find even now so much activity: it is computed that the world is at present laying down ten thousand miles of railway and one hundred thousand of telegraphs yearly; and if we allow one-hundredth part for the River Plate it will give us 100 miles railway and 1,000 miles of telegraph per annum.

The ratio of telegrams to letters in this country is much greater than in Europe; the returns for 1866 shewed as follows:—

In England 1 telegram to 121 letters
In Belgium 1 „ to 37 „
In Switzerland 1 telegram to 69 letters.

Last year the ratio in the Argentine Republic was 1 telegram for 25 letters, but in April 1872 in Buenos Ayres it was 1 to 15. In other words we avail ourselves eight times as much of telegrams as they do in England, and this is a proof of their extraordinary utility in a country like this where immense distances, imperfect modes of conveyance, risk of Indians &c., formed hitherto such serious obstacles not only to travelling but even to postal communication.

Turn we now to Mr. Huergo's report on Free Libraries, a thing unknown in this Republic until last year; there are at present 27 open to the public in the various Provinces, besides 9 others nearly ready, viz:—

Buenos Ayres. 2 in the city, belonging to the Sociedad Typografica and Societá Italiana. There are public libraries already opened at Chivilcoy, Capilla del Señor, Pilar, Salto, Merlo, Tordillo and Saladillo, besides others in formation at Cañuelas, Belgrano, Barracas, Pila and Tandil.

Santa Fé.—A fine Free Library at Rosario, another at Santa Fé scarcely inferior, and two others being got up by the San Carlos and Esperanza colonists.

Entre Rios—A large library at Paraná; two others of great importance are being established at Concepcion and Gualeguaychu, while Diamante and other departments have also sent money to purchase books.

Corrientes—The towns of Mercedes and Bella Vista have remitted $563 fts. to be laid out in books for their proposed free libraries.

Cordoba. The city of Cordoba has 5 free libraries, including the Printers' and Protectora both of which send money for more books. Frayle Muerto has sent 500$ for the same purpose.

Santiago. The library attached to the National College is open for the public and sends 313$ for books. Each State school in the Province will have a library attached.

Tucuman. Municipality voted 300$ for books. All the departments are imitating the capital in getting up libraries. One at Graneros to open soon.

Catamarca. First-class free library in the capital, remits 1376$ for more books. All the departments collecting funds for libraries.

San Juan. The Franklyn library established in 1866, has 5,000 volumes and 300 subscribers. Departments going to imitate, and remit 2,000$ for books.

San Luis. Free library attached to Nat. College; 200$ collected for more books.

Mendoza. Free library in the capital; 150$ remitted for more books. Departments also agitating libraries.

Salta. Libraries being formed at Salta and Campo Santo. Legislature voted 100$ for books.

Jujuy. Legislature voted funds for free libraries.

Rioja. Libraries will be attached to all the public schools.

Mr. Huergo concludes by saying that the Department of Free Libraries has already spent 3,000$, the practise being to award each locality the same amount by way of subsidy as the neighbors have themselves contributed, for the purchase of books. He suggests that the Government should ask Congress to vote ten times the wretched sum which has been awarded for this Department. The utility of these Free Libraries is beyond question, as Mr. Huergo has had occasion to see in England and Mr. Sarmiento in the United States, the two countries so remarkable for these institutions.

Books, after all, are the civilizers of the age. As Cicero said, two thousand years ago "Quid leges sine moribus". It is useless to make laws for people until you moralize them, and Free Libraries are the first fruits of popular advancement, as well as the levers for elevating a nation's importance.

IMPORTANT FROM MONTEVID EO

GENERAL MITRE INTERVIEWED.

July 1st.

The favourite steamer Porteña, Captain Fitzmaurice, took down 120 excursionists on Friday evening. Most of them were young men from offices determined to make the most of the two holidays. Some Germans who leave by the Bahia had come to take leave of their friends here. It is thought the new line will pay well, and prove of infinite service to the country by bringing out a hard-working, many-tongued class of youth. But the competition in steamers is so great to-day that all must be A1 boats, else they will never pay.

Just as we were entering port, between three and four o'clock a.m., a heavy fog arose from the water, obliging Captain Valgueras (as the natives will persist in calling him) to come to anchor). Even the Cerro was hidden from view, and it was not before eight that we got ashore. By a strange coincidence, it was the very spot where the America was burned, yet, notwithstanding everybody was waked by the stoppage, not one stirred out of his berth, so great was the confidence in the commander, who is (no matter how they distort his name) in dress and manner a real "jolly Jack tar."

Even within the last few months immense improvements are visible everywhere, and there is really no saying how fast this place would go ahead if it could only get fair play. The moment so long and ardently desired by every true Oriental patriot seems to have arrived—peace and plenty already smile upon the land.

In all the chief streets new houses are running up and tramways being laid down. Saturday was named for the inauguration of the Calle 25 de Mayo line. The rain came down and spoiled the sport. Since them nothing has been done, the directors displaying no hurry to begin "turning in the money". Mr. Robertson and a Brazilian gentleman have contracted for several new lines which it is thought may be finished by the end of the year. The tall white hat and gentlemanly bearing of the former are well known in Buenos Ayres as belonging to one who trusted not wisely but too well in the promises of Governors and Municipal authorities. Contrary to the advice of all his friends Mr. Robertson hung about the Government house, hat in hand, for a year and half, until a larger fortune was spent in hotels and plans for cleansing the city than the most favorable contract could give.

Had those plans been adopted in 1868 it is probable we never should have had to lament the terrible catastrophe of 1871. Mr. Robertson was no mere dreaming adventurer, but a proven, practical man, having managed some of the largest Railway extensions in England. He has now charge of large workshops in Rio de Janeyro.

The event of the day has been the arrival of General Mitre. For days past nothing else was spoken of but the probabilities of war. The general impression here is that Madame Argentina must "knuckle under" for the present, reserving her feelings for some more opportune moment. Meantime the Prussian system is recommended. A better example of patient, long suffering, steady advancement (morally and materially) and ultimate brilliant success could not be, if only a Bismarck instead of a Tejedor ruled the destinies of the country. "But there's the rub." A universal cry is raised here against the overheating tone of the Foreign Office, which has in a few months undone the good work of years. Buenos Ayres is on bad terms with all her neighbors, and in the event of being humiliated by a more powerful nation cannot expect much sympathy from Europe. As regards the alliance with this country there is but one opinion. Montevideo is by her geographical position in the same fix as Buenos Ayres in the Paraguayan campaign, consequently she has no choice, As the friend or enemy of Brazil she must equally become the base of operations. No man knows this better than the Special Commissioner; wherefore he does not lose much time at the Government House, but pushes along to the Imperial Capital as fast as steam can drive him. Arrived yesterday only, he leaves to-day in the Gironde. We met last evening at dinner, when I proceeded to interview His Excellency. To my enquiry if he came down in a special steamer he replied that such distinctions ill-became a republican. In these free countries one man was as good as another, if not better. For this reason he preferred the ordinary river steamer. The captain of the Rio Uruguay was, he said, a very good fellow, and remarkably solicitous for the comfort of the passengers, but nothing of a Spanish scholar. I remarked what a pity it was that foreigners should, as a rule, take so little pains to acquire the language of the country, without which it was almost impossible to succeed in life. The General acquiesced with me so far, but taking a wider view of the subject pointed out the several evils consequent on this want of knowledge.

In no other way could he explain the unpardonable apathy displayed by them in everything that concerned the nation. Let poets and patriots talk as they will, wherever a man makes his home, be it in the centre of London or the wilds of the Gran Chaco, that is his country; the land of one's friends and interests, and not the place of our birth, is our real fatherland; else the child that was born on the sea would be an unlucky youth indeed. This it was that constituted the greatness of the United States, and as Argentines had endeavoured to imitate the Model Republic, he hoped that foreigners would hasten to do likewise. You have, he said, advertised for essays on the best way to settle the Frontier question. Next month you may call for a plan to suppress revolutions; perhaps afterwards the subject will be, how to repel foreign invasion. In one word I answer: Let foreigners have the interests of the country at heart, and rush as one man to its defence in the hour of danger, whether from within or without.

The eloquence of his Excellency, whom I cannot help regarding as the most illustrious of Argentines, quite overpowered me, and I could do no more than signify by a nod of my head how sincerely I appreciated the truth of all he had said.

His Excellency was silent on the subject of his mission, but his frankness of manner gave me reason to hope that he who had proved himself a good governor, an able general, and an ornament to the Press, will likewise prove a successful Ambassador. Tejedor is the man to make the difficulty, Mitre the genius to save the country with honor. Believe me whatever phase the Brazilian question may assume, Mitre will turn up "trump card." He is the man of the day.

To return to the interview. I inquired who would manage the paper during his absence. To which the General replied that Mr. Gutierrez would have to pull away with the one oar. However, he is an old and expert hand at it. At the risk of appearing rude, I had to refuse a cigar. What, don't smoke?—a rare virtue in these countries. Then, taking my hand, "I could wish, Mr. Mulhall, that all the young men were like you. [I bowed low, and begged his Excellency would spare my blushes.] Smoking is the great vice of the country, whether from custom or climate. The latter I am inclined to think, since foreigners after a few years' residence, become inveterate smokers. Of all smoking, paper cigars are the worst; they take so long to roll and prepare, thereby inducing laziness and an utter disregard for the value of time." Grasping me warmly by the hand, he moved to the door, informing me that No. 46, with two windows and balconies to the street, was at my disposal while he remained. I thanked H.E., and wished him a pleasant voyage and successful mission.

The General was dressed in plain clothes, with the usual slouch hat which has carried death and destruction on more fields than one when the existence of his country depended on the issue. He looks in the prime of life, say 45 years. The spent ball mark is quite hidden when he wears his hat; at other times when speaking to you it is painfully visible. I even fancy it swells as the conversation becomes more animated.

The "Oriental" is not to say full at present, so parties may save themselves the expense of telegraphing down for rooms. Last week there was a general clearance of merchants who came down to look after their goods sent to deposit during the sickness. Messrs. Barry, Muir, Brown, Webb, (Rio Cuarto Railway), and McDougal have returned, Mr. Dunne, of Drysdale & Co.'s alone remaining; he expects to get away in a day or two. Mr. Dunne complains terribly of the slowness of the Customs officials and the excessive charges for shipping. Bad as is the port of Buenos Ayres, this beats it hollow.

Ramon is building a new branch establishment at Santa Lucia, and an American company are putting up baths there. They will be much higher up the stream than the Water Supply Works which are partly fed by the River Mato Ojo. The town, said to be the most picturesque in the Province, is now connected by rail—12 leagues an hour, no stoppage, price one dollar. The terminus is found to be too far from centre and arrangements are being made to run a branch line to the Custom House.

Don Pedro Zumaran gave grand ball on Saturday night. The Club Libertad had intended to give one on same evening, but ultimately changed it to Friday in deference to the worthy Spanish Consul.

This night week Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle gave a farewell entertainment to numerous friends on their departure for Buenos Ayres. Mr. Carlisle's successor here is not yet known. Mr. Kinch or Mr. Fuller is expected. The latter gentleman is on his way out from England.

No one believes in the White Star line of steamers, as it would be to the Company's interest to send out their best ships, and the others, some of which were formerly chartered by the Lamport and Holt line, are not up to the mark, and would never do in such an ocean of competition.

Considerable anxiety is felt for the Lusitania, now a week overdue. Mr. Rouquand and six skilled workmen are waiting to take passage in her to the Straits, thence overland to Santa Cruz, the San Luis of South America.

Dr. Garniso, one of the medical committee, leaves for Europe in the Gironde; also M. Polet and a host of others.

The Brazilian transport Wassimon, from Rio, brings no later dates, having left same day as the Rydal Hall. She called at Santos and Rio Grande, but brings no news, good or bad, of the Lusitania. Neither does she bring any other troops than her own crew and the commission named to mark out the boundaries with Paraguay.

LATEST FROM PERU.

GALLANT CONDUCT OF CONSUL HUTCHINSON.

We have received by the mail, a copy of 'The South Pacific Times', a new Peruvian newspaper published half English, half Spanish;—The news may interest our readers. We comply with a most agreeable duty in saluting our new Anglo-Peruvian colleague and wishing him every success:—

The U. S. surveying steamer Hassler, with Professor Agassiz and his scientific party, left Callao yesterday morning for the north. She was to call in at Ancon, where Dr. Hutchinson, Her Majesty's Consul at this port, has been for the last few days collecting Peruvian archæological specimens for the museum endowed by the late Mr. Peabody at Cambridge University Massachusetts. Amongst his gatherings, the Consul has got together no less than three hundred and fifty-seven [357] skulls of Indians; from the Huacas at Ancon, Pacasamayo, and Chancay. Some of these skulls present an abnormal condition, which our medical readers will understand. There are three, of which the inter-parietal suture continues through the frontal bone to the nose, and another in which no suture is at all visible. The remainder have the usual distorted fashion of all skulls belonging to the Pre-historic Indian. The Consul has made a noble beginning to let the scientific world know something of the early races of this part of the world. He has also included in his collection fragments of fishermen's nets, netting needles, Indian rope made of grass, mat-work for coffins, and a couple of score of Huacas, with other specimens of Pre-historic Peruvian crockeryware. Not bad work for two days. The Hassler returned to this port last evening, and, after landing some parties who had gone in her to Ancon, proceeded again to sea, bound for Payta.

The dreadful cry of "fire" rang through Ancon on last Wednesday evening, and turned out the whole population in a state of indescribable alarm, for the houses in Ancon being all built of wood it could not be expected that anything would be saved.

The greatest confusion ensued as the flames shot up, and the screaming of women was heard above the crackling flames. Even in all the terror, the Comandante ordered a file of about fifty soldiers, with loaded rifles, to come up to the scene, where they stood gazing, without doing a single thing to help. Water in Ancon, there was none, but Dr. Hutchinson pointed out to the Comandante that there was plenty of material, namely fine saud, in the streets, to put out the fire, if he employed the soldiers at that work. But no attention was paid to this suggestion, except a courteous assent to its utility. Meantime, Mr. Grundy and Mr. Carrich went to work with a will, such as we need scarcely say our countrymen do on all such occasions, to pull down two houses in the block, so as to prevent the fire getting to the railway station. Then, twenty Englishmen and Americans set to work to shovel in sand on the fire, amongst whom were Dr. Hutchinson, Mr. Williams, Manager of the Ancon and Lima Railway, Messrs. Grundy, Carrick, Garret, and others, whose names we do not know. By twelve o'clock the fire was put out, so as to prevent its extending any further, and just then arrived a special train from Lima, with the Prefect, a fire engine, and a company of firemen, or bomberos.

Amongst the five houses burned, was the Post Office. It is said that a Chinaman has been burned in the conflagration; but our informant is doubtful of this account being correct. It is however true that another Chinaman was seen sitting down on the ruins of his house playing an accordeon.

The Minister of War, and the Minister of Finance came to Callao on Tuesday, the former to visit the iron-clad Independencia, lately under repairs, and the latter to examine the Custom House.

The steam yacht, Sofia, the property of Messrs. Dreyfus Brothers, has arrived in the bay from the South, having had a company of engineers on board, on a surveying expedition of the guano deposits.

The Ville de Saint Nazaire is on the way here and may be expected from one day to another. This is the third of their steamers that the French Transatlantic Company has sent to these waters.

General Echeñique is reported on the eve of departure for Chile.

Mr. William Henry de Soussa has been recognised as Vice Consul of the Empire of Brazil at Mayobamba.

The shares for the new Street Railway company are rapidly being taken up, and, ere long, we may expect that the Company will begin work.

By late advices we hear that Mr. Henry Meigg's agent at Cusco, has suffered from a fire, that took place at his house, and by which two young ladies, members of his family, were severely burnt.

Francesca de Rimini was given at the 'Odeo' three days ago, before a large audience. The tragedy is written by the celebrated Silvio Pellico, and is one of the most interesting that can be well imagined. As may be expected, Señor Rossi played his part fully up to his merited reputation. We recommend our readers not to lose this, or Sullivan when next advertised.

Returns from the distant departments of the Republic continue to come in, regarding the future President of Peru. Of course, as yet it is impossible to say who will be the favored candidate, as, according to some papers, Señor Pardo has the majority, and, according to others, Señor Arenas is the fortunate citizen elected to rule the destinies of the country.

We understand that the Alameda now in progress of construction, and which will unite Lima to Callao, is advancing rapidly, and that as regards the engineering difficulties they are all over, excepting some of the last levels. At this rate, within a few years, we shall have a delightful drive to the seaport, probably lined on both sides with pretty "chateaux" and villas.

IMPORTANT FROM BOLIVIA.

ELECTION OF MORALES.

Cobija, June 7th.

Morales, the army candidate for the Presidency, has gained an immense majority in all the departments. There were 3 other nominal candidates Gen. Rendon, Dr. La Tapia and Gen. Campero, but the papers were obliged to support Morales, who held the power in his hands, and so effectually did all the public officials support him that the election was a walk-over. A strong garrison was under arms at La Paz, and order was not disturbed. It remains to be seen what kind of a Constitutional President we shall find in Col. Morales.

Nothing could be more absurd than the rumors or fears of a rupture between Bolivia and the Argentine Republic. This country is resolved on peace at all cost, especially with our Argentine neighbors, as Bolivia is now on a steady course of regeneration and progress, putting a stop to official embezzlements, and laboring on all hands to push forward public works and national enterprises.

Mejillones guano and Caracoles minerals bid fair to enrich Bolivia in a wonderful manner; the export trade of the former place has increased so rapidly that it seems a second San Francisco and will soon have 100,000 inhabitants. The railway across the Atacama desert, from Caracoles to the port of Mejillones will be commenced at once, the concessionaires, MM. Bordes, having deposited the necessary guarantee of 200,000 hard dollars. The surveys have been commenced for the Great Northern of Bolivia, from La Paz to Desaguadero. Col. Church's works on the Madeira line also progress. Thus Bolivia is simultaneously obtaining outlets on the Pacific and Amazon, but we look anxiously for communication with the River Plate valley.

The contract signed by Melgarejo with Pizarro for a great highroad to the South has been cancelled as unjuss. Sor. Suarez Arana has concluded a contract for bridges and post-houses between Chuquisaca, Cochabamba and Santa Cruz, with the view of opening up fine countries inhabited by Cholos, and facilitating communication between the settled parts of Bolivia and the Mamore railway of Col. Church.

Although our relations with Chile are outwardly of a friendly character there is a secret jealousy between us, because it is felt that the Chilians took advantage of our sad condition when the last treaty was made. His Excellency Mr. Lindsay, the new Chilian Plenipotentiary, has been received at La Paz with great honor, but the relations are in reality anything but cordial.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

We publish in another column an interesting letter from our Special Correspondent who left for the sister city last week to chronicle the doings there of the Mitre mission. The Special Correspondent interviewed the Special Envoy, and appears to have elicited some most valuable general information, and a graceful special compliment from H.E.

Has any subscriber to this paper the luck to hold Washoe Mining Shares? if so he will learn something to his advantage by perusing the following important news from California:—"The great excitement of San Francisco on the departure of the Montona was the rise in value of Washoe Mining Stock. The market value of thirteen Companies had increased in thirty days some fifteen millions." We regret to say we hold no Washoes ourselves—the first instance on record of Standard ill-luck.

We are favored with a letter from an esteemed subscriber on the subject matter for our next Essay—The Influence of Climate—requesting us to state upon who, which, or what said influence is to be considered. We give and meant to give, 'carte blanche' in that question if this city can support any more tramways, and if the Municipality adheres to its new rule about paving the streets it will entail an extra expense on tramways of about $2oo,ooo m/c per square.

Messrs. Mitre, Vedia and Co. announce a large auction of muskets. Verily the auction in question is a sign of the times.

In the event of the two Governments failing to agree with the Provincial Bank as to the rate of interest to be allowed on Treasury deposits, it is probable that we shall have both Governments discounting in the open market. This is good news for discount brokers.

The history of the wonderful Public Works Loan, as given in to-day's STANDARD, from the correspondence published by order of Congress, has attracted immense notice. Many parties wish to see all the letters published in full, but this is out of the question. Although the Government seems to think that it has been a bad business for Murrieta, the general opinion in the market is that it has been the finest business that firm has ever had in hand.

The Wassimon's mails from Brazil are important. We give a summary in another column. The Rio courts have declared that they cannot pronounce an English Insurance Company bankrupt that declines to pay its policy, inasmuch as the head office is in England; however, the courts of Brazil will embargo everything, and arrest the agent. The decree is important. English Insurance Companies should be doubly particular abroad in paying up, and unless in a case of positive fraud, should be most punctual in paying off a policy. The minister of agriculture has published an important circular, which we will give to-morrow. The emigration from Europe to Brazil is now assuming immense proportions, and a letter from a French immigrant giving his first experiences of Brazil is published in the papers, and has attracted much notice. The new steamboat law is also published. We notice that the European steamers in the Brazilian trade enjoy great privileges, and have not to give free passages as in the Plate. We hold over this important law for a future day, all commanders and shipbrokers should have it. The following succinct statement of the Brazilian budget is important:—

The Minister of Finance in his budget estimates the revenue for the year 1873-74 at..... 97,000:000$000
And the expenditure at ..... 90,662:740$617

Leaving a surplus of..... Rs. 6,337:259$383

The revenue of 1872-73 was estimated at 9?,000:000$ in last year's budget, not including the payments by the Argentine Government, but it is probable that it will reach .. 97,000:000$000
And with those payments of .. 2,370:900$000

The total of ..... 99,370:000$000

Leaving a surplus of..... Rs. 8,707:259$383

The revenue of the current year 1871-72 was estimated in its law at 95,800,000$000, but the treasury returns indicate that it will rise, including Argentine payments to..... 99,279:668$
Add nett deposits about..... 1,000:000$

The latest Rio market reports give the following:—

Coals—We have to note a considerable advance in rates of all kinds, and unless we have large arrivals higher rates will be sought, as the stock is limited, and consumption large.

We quote—
Cardiff ..... 25$000 to 25$500
Newcastle..... 24$500 to 25$000
Smithy ..... 17$000 to 18$000

Cement—The demand continues good both for lots in deposit and to arrive. We quote 8$ to 8$500 per barrel.

Lard—Owing to new arrivals expected, and the market fully supplied, the market is dull, and 420 to 440 rs. is with difficulty obtained.

Flour—Has ruled very firmly at our quotations. The arrivals since our last have been 16,816 barrels, and sales amounted to about an equal quantity, leaving a stock of 25,000 in importers' hands, and dealers well supplied. We quote as follows:—

Trieste ..... 25$000 to 27$000
Baltimore ..... 23$000 to 24$000
Richmond..... 22$000 to 24$500
Chile..... 12$000 to 16$000

Kerosene—The 7,590 cases which arrived by the Anette have been all sold at from 12$600 to 12$800. The market is fully supplied, but these quotations are firmly maintained.

Pitch Pine—The only demand is for the River Plate. One inch lumber is worth 115 to 120 rs. per foot.

Freights—We have abundance of shipping, and we cannot note any improvement in rates so long as the demand is limited. We quote—
Channel and Mediterranean..25s. to 32s.
United States North.....20 to 25.
Do. South ..... nominal:

"On the 7th the steamer Braconet was launched at the Ilha das Cobras. She is 100 feet long, 18 beam, hold 7 feet 8 inches, draft 5 feet; her tonnage 159 tons, and the effective horse-power of her engines 120.

"On the same day H.M. the Emperor struck the kingbolt of a corvette building in the Arsenal. She is to be 200 feet long, 30 beam, 19 hold, draft 15 feet, 1400 tons, driven by engines of 2400-horse power effective, and will carry three pivot 150-pound rifles. She is to be named the Trajano after her designer, Sr. Trajano Augusto de Carvalho, and will be constructed according to a design which, we understand, that gentleman has patented in England, whose special peculiarity, we believe, consists in the entire absence of hollow lines forward, the bow being a perfect wedge carried vertically down to the floor, which is nearly flat, the aim being to divide the water and throw it all horizontally aside, where it encounters least resistance in escaping."

The British brig Amanda Jane was lost near Vigia, Para, but the crew and part of her cargo were saved. The British barque Storm grounded at Piranhas, five miles from Salinas. There were no hopes entertained of saving her or her cargo of coal.

The Panama Star announces that a new Scotch line of steamers is about to be established between Glasgow and the West Indies. Messrs. Burns are the projectors of the enterprise.

The last mails from Chile bring the following maritime news—

"The British ship Burnstone, of London, Captain Griffiths, left Cardiff on the 12th January for Patasmayo, loaded with railroad iron and coals. Encountered very heavy gales off Cape Horn, in which lost rudder and received very considerable damage; also sprung a leak, and made so much water that finally the crew were compelled to abandon her. All hands were picked up by the British barque Arica, Captain O'Leary, and the British barque Gama, both vessels bound to this port. The captain, officers and crew of the Brunstone desire to express their sincere thanks to Captains Rosser and O'Leary for the prompt assistance rendered to them in their danger, and for the kind treatment received at their hands during the passage to this port.—J D Griffiths, late master; Owen Jones, first mate: Seth Hughes, second mate."

The works of the Asphalte Pavement Company (Val de Travers) will be commenced in this city at once. The importance of this new pavement may be judged by the following—

"M. Leon Malo, a French engineer, has computed that if all Paris were paved with the Val de Travers compressed asphalte, the saving in wear and tear to horses and carriages would be £340,000 per annum. How far the calculation is correct may be difficult to say, but of the economy of asphalte in its effects on horses and vehicles there can be no question. Its general use is a consummation much to be desired, and the present competition will doubtless tend to reduce the cost of this luxurious improvement in the art of road-making. Our only fear is whether it will stand the hard work demanded of it; though it must be remembered that granite often has to be patched and mended, and what is called 'relaying' is a formidable affair."

It is rumored in Montevideo that the debt due to Brazil by the Oriental Republic is about to be funded, and bonds for the amount bearing 3 per cent. interest paid to the Brazilian Government. This will be a very satisfactory solution of this long pending question, and doubtless will be acceptable to the Brazilian Government. The interest and amortization on the bonds will be so [illegible] there can be no question whatever as to the ability of the Oriental Government to meet the obligation. It is really extraordinary with what great punctuality the Montevidean Government has; during all its political troubles, met its obligations. Almost every dollar received at the Custom House is pledged to the service of some debt or other, yet such is the wonderful elasticity of the country that the revenue keeps up, and there is money for all. The Montevidean securities are to-day in the hands of investors, and are just as much appreciated in that market as the National Bonds in this.

Some alarm has been caused in this market by the statement in an Entre Riano paper that the Bank of Parana is about to smash. What foundation there is for the rumour it is difficult to say, inasmuch as the bank in question does very little business here, but the Gualeguaychu newspaper states that the concern is about to be declared bankrupt, and that already Entre Rios has had some experience in bank failures, inasmuch that no less than three Banks in that province have already closed their doors—first the bank of Notice, and at one time called the Rio de la Plata; secondly, the Commercial Bank of Santa Fe, which had branches in Parana; and third, the bank of Parana. From all we can gather the bank in Entre Rios that enjoys the most credit, has the greatest circulation, the largest specie capital, and conducted on strictly banking principles, is the Benitos bank. The Commercial bank of Gualeguay is also considered a good bank, and enjoys good credit. Probably by next mail we shall hear further particulars respecting this impending bank crisis in Parana.

The most stirring news of the day was the proposed trip of the Minister of War to Azul, 'tis generally said that the Minister goes on business connected with the frontier, we hope it will lead to something.

The favourite steamer Villa del Salto, is again on her route, she has just been painted and fitted up and is one of the finest steamers in the River.

The National Government expect to receive to-day the detailed official report of general Arredondo's expedition to the Indians. It appears that the result of this expedition is far more important than is generally supposed, the documents will be probably published tomorrow.

Application has been made to the patent office for privilege to manufacture paper in this city. The enterprise is in good hands and will be successful if carried out; owing to the great demand for printing paper, the new manufactory will be taxed to its utmost to supply the newspapers in this town; the concern will be joint stock, and the paper will be manufactured from the fibrous grasses that grow on the Islands of the Parana.

Messrs Schaffenorth and Sattler, ship brokers, in their review for the packet give the following summary of business for the month of June—

Arrivals from 1st to 27th June—
141 sailing vessels.
15 steamers.

CLIMATE.

One of the greatest phenomena of Nature is the mysterious influence of climate; and we hold that the grand cause of disease and human inconvenience is climatic.

The sudden transition from heat to cold in England is the foundation of consumption and premature decay; but in Buenos Ayres, with a highly rarified atmosphere, surrounded with plains which for hundreds of miles are unbroken by an elevation, the shifting of a few points of the wind varies the climate from a semi-tropical heat to a piercing coldness. Various expedients have been resorted to to fix a remedy—some 'decoct' cocktails, others extol brandy. Alas! the remedy is as bad as the disease. Blighted prospects and insanity are often the sequel. Common sense points out that the way to establish an equilibrium is by attending to the article of Clothing. Dress warm, but light. Have your Coats broad on the chest, to allow the lungs to expand; your trousers to fit easy without braces; in fact, go to RODGERS & BAKER and order a suit of suitable clothes, and you can throw cocktails and physic to the dogs, and walking forth beneath the azure arch of our matchless sky, fearless you may face the scorching Brazilian sirocco or the icy blast from the snow-capped Andes, proudly exclaiming 'Excelsior!' my clothes are made by

SAVINGS BANK

BANK MAUA AND CO.

101--Calle Cangallo--103

BUENOS AYRES.

The immense advantages of Accounts Current are now so generally felt and appreciated in the two great emporiums of the River Plate, Montevideo and Buenos Ayres, that there are very few Merchants who fail to keep one at the bank in which they place the most confidence.

The Bank of Mauá & Co in Montevideo has already provided for the working classes in that city a safe and profitable depository for their savings.

The sums deposited in that very important institution are daily increasing, and already reach a very large amount.

These advantages have not hitherto been enjoyed in this city by an immense number of clerks artisans, working men, and servants of all classes and conditions, who are equally interested in putting their savings out at interest, thus providing themselves with a reserve fund in case of need sickness, or old age, instead of spending them in immoral gambling, in lotteries, and other frivolities.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. of this city, following o noble example of their firm in Montevideo, w offer the same facilities in this city, and has opened a Savings Bank at No. 103 Calle Cangallo from Nine a.m. till Three p.m. every day, for the reception of the savings of the classes already mentioned, Sundays and holidays excepted.

The Bank will deliver to each depositors a pas book, in which will be entered the amount deposited and withdrawn.

The depositor is permitted at any time to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited; in the former case the interes will be calculated up to date.

The Bank of Mauá & Co is sufficiently known to the Public by the benefit derived from the course of its operations, which are regulated on the strictest and soundest principles, and always directed to promote the general welfare.

The Bank of Mauá & Co. are also persuaded that this new branch of their business will render immense service to the working classes of Buenos Ayres and its neighborhood.

Buenos Ayres, 2nd January, 1867.

CONDITIONS.

Bristol's sarsaparilla

Is prepared in the most scientific manner, by thoroughly educated chemists and Druggists, who have had many years' experience. It is not a simple extract from one article, but is compounded of extracts from a number of Roots, Herbs Barks, and Leaves, all of which are possessed of some particular virtue or power in curing the diseases that have their source in the blood and humors; these different vegetable extracts are combined in such a way as to retain, in so full strength, the special curative virtue possessed by each. The root of the Sarsaparilla plants found in Honduras, is that which we use in this preparation; it is the kind which all medical men esteem most. About fifty per cent. of Bristol's Sarsaparilla consists of the concentrated extract, the remainder, as above stated being composed of extracts from other powerful, cleansing and healing vehetable substances. It does not contain any thing that is dagerous or injurious to health, and in this, as in nearly every other respect, is entirely different from all other preparations sold under the name of Sarsaparilla.

By having our own agents at he places where the various roots, drugs, herbs and plants, composing our medicines, are produced, we are enabled to exercise that constant care in selection which insures uniformity of excellence, and we spare no money and no effort to procure the best—and only the best—of every article entering into their composition; and it is with the most abiding confidence we say, to be sick of all nations and all countries, that, in Bristol's Sarsaparilla you have a remedy more reliable than any before offered to you, and which will no disappoint you in the cure of.

Salt Rheum, Tetter, Scald Head,
Syphilis, or Veneral Disease,
Nervous and General Debility,
Old Sores, Ulcers, Tumors,
Abscesses, Boils, Eruptions
Scrofula or King's Evil,
Female Derangements,
White Swellings,
Fever and Ague,
Chills and Fever.
& Dumb Ague.

As a means of building up the consiitution that has been broken down by the excessive use of Mercury, Iron, or other Minerals, our Sarsaparilla will be found most excellent, and can be administered with safety to the weakest patients. As a purifier of the blood and humors, in the Spring and early Summer, it will the found unfailing. It can be taken freely at seasons, rainy or dry. For some of the above diseases, the use of the Sarsaparilla must be continued a considerable time, especially for those that are hereditary or constitutional in their nature—such as Scrofula: but a faithful compliance with the directions will always relieve and mitigate, and in a great majority of cases will effect a complete cure. It will also be found, in all of the above diseases, that a cure will be greatly hasted by using our Bristol's Sugar-coated Pills, in moderate does, in connection with the Sarsaparilla; they carry off large quantities of morbific or diseased matter set free in the system by the Sarsaparilla, and in this way facilitate the return o normal functional operations cj—my1

Ferruginous Gin

COMPOSED OF THE FINEST TONIC INGREDIENTS SUCH AS

QUININE

BY

J. FERD. NAGEL,

HAMBURG,

INVENTOR AND SOLE MANUFACTURER OF THE FERRUGINOUS GIN.

J. FERD. NAGEL'S ferruginous Gin does not belong to that class of wonderful remedies which are being sold at exorbitant prices: on the contrary, the exceedingly moderate price places this most efficacious and valuable preparation within the easy reach of everybody. The ferruginous Gin is not intended for all possible maladies and ailments, but is a simple tonic, imparting to it just the quantity of iron necessary for the growth and sustenance of the body.

The medical testimonial treating upon the excellent qualities of this invigorating preparation, runs thus—"The ferruginous Gin having proved highly efficacious in many cases of scarcity of blood and nervous ailments, Mr. S. Ferd Nagel has applied himself to the task of preparing it has succeeded in composing a preparation which taken alone or with the admixture of Soda, Selters or other effervescent waters, is not only greeable to the taste, but extremely beneficial in its effects upon the stomach and the whole system. The ferruginous Gin containing besides the best vegetable Bitters (China Root, &c.) may be taken even by people of delicate constitution before and after dinner in doses varying from 2 to 4 tablespoons full,—100 parts ferruginous Gin contain 0,12 parts iron oxyd."

The ferruginous Gin may be recommended as an admirable cure for Green-Sickness, nervous ailments of all kinds, general debility, Fluor albus; it purifies the blood, creates appetite, promotes digestion and contains every ingredient necessary for the development and sustenance of the body. The excellent process adopted in the preparation renders it extremely mild in its operation, and it will be found valuable in imparting to the system just the quantity of iron required for the well being of the body.

Mr. J. Ferd. Nagel's ferruginous Gin was first prepared by him in the year 1850, and has since become a general favorite.

This ferruginous Gin has been used extensively and with eminent success as a renovator of the nervous system, and thousands have derived the greatest benefit from its use, for it not only sets right any irregularity of the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys, but has also proved highly valuable against cholera.

Ferruginous Gin.

ANALYSIS
Professor Kyle.

The Iron exists in the form of a protosalt, one fluid ounce of the Gin containing 3·10ths of a grain of Protoxide of Iron. The Ferruginous Gin may therefore take its place among chalybeate preparations, and be employed with advantage where the administration of a tonic alcoholic stimulant is indicated.
